

Invitation to Scientific Symposium

50 years with Göttingen Minipigs

9 May 2019 at 09:30-16:30 hrs.

Venue: The Royal Society, Wolfson Room One & Two, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG, UK (entrance through House 7)

Registration: By email to spp@minipigs.dk before 25 April 2019 – Registration is free and includes both lunch and networking drinks

09:30-10:00	Registration and coffee
10:00-10:05	Welcome. Lars Friis Mikkelsen, Ellegaard Göttingen Minipigs A/S, Denmark
10:05-10:30	Right from the start: 50 years with Göttingen Minipigs. Peter Vestbjerg, Ellegaard Göttingen Minipigs A/S, Denmark
10:30-10:45	Understanding Animal Research – supporting in vivo research in the UK. Wendy Jarrett, Understanding Animal Research (UAR), UK
10:45-11:00	Animal Research: Time to Talk! Kirk Leech, European Animal Research Association (EARA), UK
11:00-11:30	The Minipig and Me: A Toxicologist's perspective of the last 15 years. Joanna Harding, AstraZeneca, UK
11:30-12:00	Anticancer drug development comparison of toxicity in minipig and mouse. Sally-Anne Reynolds, Sequani Limited, UK
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:30	Modelling human self-poisoning in Göttingen Minipig models. Michael Eddleston, University of Edinburgh, UK
13:30-14:00	Göttingen Minipigs in Inhalation. Paul Horrell, Envigo, UK
14:00-14:30	Coffee break
14:30-15:00	Göttingen Minipig Pathology – 50 years in a nutshell. Sean McKeag, Covance, UK
15:00-15:30	Göttingen Minipigs as non-rodent species – specific advantages. Henrik Duelund Pedersen, Ellegaard Göttingen Minipigs A/S, Denmark
15:30-16:30	Networking and celebration of 50 Years with Göttingen Minipigs

You are welcome to share this invitation with relevant colleagues

